About the workshops

Modern business, whether the organisation is in the public or private sector or a charitable institution, relies on good financial controls, efficient and effective services and achieving value for money both for itself and its customers. The latter can be of course be 'customers' in the traditional sense, or the citizens for whom a public body provides services such as transport, education, health, utilities etc.

Procurement and the use of competition should sit at the heart of an organisation's strategic planning process and the use of competitive tenders to procure goods and services can help the organisation in maintaining a competitive edge and driving a better commercial deal. Good procurement processes and the use of competitive bidding are major contributors to the value for money concept.

The processes in the public sector are regulated by national governments as well as international development agencies. People involved in procurement and contracting should have a working understanding of these essential requirements, together with an appreciation of the role of audit in procurement.

The workshops will help you to identify and comply with the key stages and processes, as well as understanding vital procurement and control issues.

Who are they for?

The workshops are aimed at anyone involved in letting or managing contracts for goods, services and works.

This workshop runs for two weeks but you are welcome to attend just one week. We are also offering a one-week standalone procurement workshop in Washington DC

How participants will benefit

The workshops will enable you to:

- Gain knowledge in all the key areas required for anyone working in procurement, whether as a procurement specialist or as a public service manager
- Achieve maximum value for money and commercial advantage for your organisation
- Ensure robust procurement processes are aligned to changing national and international statutory and regulatory requirements
- Ensure that contract management methods are applied consistently across the whole organisation to deliver contract standards
- Understand the principles and impact of the supply chain and develop a robust contractor regime.

What the workshops will cover

The workshops will enable you to:

- Gain practical knowledge of the full aspects in the procurement cycle
- Apply procurement strategies effectively
- Understand modern procurement processes, including key documentation, tendering, evaluation and awarding the contracts
- Appreciate the need for clear and effective specifications and the introduction of quality principles into the process
- Ensure quality contract control and compliance
- Establish contract management procedures and skills in your organisation
- Appreciate the need for a robust supply chain and understand its impact on the organisation
- Learn the key principles of contract negotiation
- Conduct post-procurement reviews
- Develop your practical skills in the audit process from planning to execution, including reporting and monitoring recommendations
- Understand how procurement audit supports the value for money concept in the provision of goods, services and works contracts.

The workshops will include seminar sessions, discussions, practical learning, case studies and visits. They have been designed to be flexible so that they can be adjusted wherever practicable to meet your requirements and those of your organisation.

You will be invited to give an informal presentation on procurement issues in your own country.

"The training was practically oriented which is its main virtue! Thank you for this very well-tailored training programme and its perfect performance by the PAI experts."

Julia Stefanova

State Expert the Ministry of Economy,
GD "European Funds for Competitiveness"
Bulgaria

"The workshop offered a great introduction to the core principles and procedures associated with procurement and contract management. The workshop materials, exercises and visits painted a clear picture, and the team at PAI thoughtfully provided electronic copies of all the material which I now refer to regularly in my work as is needed. In addition, the exposure to the other participants, who were all procurement experts from around the world, was useful to gauge and discuss procurement best practice. Overall a great training activity with good value for money."

Workshop Director

The Workshop Director is David Wells. David is a procurement specialist and a member of the Chartered Institute of Procurement and Supply with over 40 years' experience of working in local government. During this time, he headed up a corporate team in the Chief Executive's Department at Barking and Dagenham Borough Council in London, with overall responsibilities for the competitive tendering process. He also project-managed the installation of a replacement IT system for the Borough's financial, personnel and payroll functions, and oversaw management of payroll, pensions, human resources, accounts, secretariat and departmental policy and administration. More recently David has worked as a public sector adviser, supporting UK central and local government, focusing on contracting and contract management, with a particular emphasis on work with the health sector, together with financial and budget management programmes. He has many years' experience of designing and delivering workshops and study programmes in the UK and overseas.

How to apply

Please complete the PAI application form online via our website <https://www.public-admin.co.uk/booking-form/> You can also complete our hard copy application form. Please contact us at pai@public-admin.co.uk to obtain a copy. Once completed return to Amanda Anderson, Programme Manager, at the same email address.

If you would like to discuss this workshop, any of our other international workshops or our consultancy services, please contact Claire Cameron, Director. We also have extensive experience of designing tailor-made training (from one to two or three weeks) which can be run in your own country or in the UK to meet the specific needs of groups or individuals at all levels within your organisation. Please contact us If you would like further information.

Language

The workshops are conducted in English. You will need to have a good working knowledge of the language.

Location and arrival arrangements

With the exception of the one week stand-alone workshop in Washington DC in May 2020, the workshops are based in central London. We can arrange travel to and from one of the London airports into central London if you let us have your flight arrival details in good time. The cost of airport transfers is included in the fee.

Fees

The tuition fee for the full two weeks will be £3,930. The fee for attending just one week is £2,185 (or £2,425 in Washington DC). These fees include tuition, travel to and from the airport in London, travel on scheduled visits which form part of the programme¹, presentation material and other documentation. It also includes a sim enabled Android tablet for you to use during the workshop and take home with you for future reference and follow up. They also include a light lunch and refreshments during each working day as part of the fee.

These workshops are in two modular weeks which can be attended as separate modules. However, we recommend attending for the full two weeks to gain a more comprehensive and rounded understanding of procurement.

Other costs

Airfares and daily travel to and from the workshop venue are not included. Our workshops are non-residential and you are responsible for your accommodation costs. We can help you with booking hotel accommodation so please let us know if you would like us to advise you or make a reservation. We suggest that you should allow approximately £160 per day for a modest standard of hotel (for example, three-star), local travel in the UK, meals (apart from a light lunch on working days) and other incidental expenses.

Value Added Tax

We do not have to charge UK Value Added Tax (VAT) if you can provide written confirmation from your government or its accredited representative that you are "employed by the government in furtherance of its sovereign activities". In all other cases, we will have to charge VAT (currently 20%) in addition to the fee.

Ways to pay

You, or your government agency, can pay by bank to bank transfer or by cheque, made payable to Public Administration International. We also accept payment by credit and debit card but there is a surcharge for this way of paying. Please contact us if you would like to pay by credit or debit card.

Discounts

We offer a 10% reduction on the full tuition fee if we receive payment no later than 28 days before the first day of the workshop. If we receive payment after that, we will charge the full tuition fee.

Cancellation

If you have to cancel your booking, you must let us know in writing and we will acknowledge in writing your cancellation. For cancellations received up to 29 days before the start of the workshop we will refund the tuition fee, minus a charge of £200 to cover our administration costs. For cancellations received within 28 days of the start of the workshop, we will charge the full tuition fee. If you have paid the tuition fee and have subsequently been refused a visa to enter the UK, we will refund the tuition fee, minus a charge of £200 to cover our administration costs, providing you send us the original letter from the British High Commission/ Embassy confirming refusal of a visa and providing you have not entered the UK.

Substitutions and transfers

If you have booked a place on a workshop and are not able to attend, we will accept an appropriate substitute at any time without penalty, but our normal terms and conditions will apply. Also, it is possible to transfer to a future workshop, but only one transfer is permitted. Please get in touch with us and we will advise you about transfers.

Please see our website for our full terms and conditions. If you prefer a hard copy of our full terms and conditions, please let us know.
